

A Definition of Love

There are a few definitions for 'love' in the dictionary but the one I believe best fits my document is:- "You can say that you love something when you consider that it is important and want to protect or support it", and "love is a strong liking for something, or a belief that it is important".

From a human point of view 'love' is a very strong word and if this 'love' is broken tragedy, discord and brokenness is always ensuing.

It is the same with God, the ties of love are strong, God loves us so much that He gave His only begotten Son to save us from our sins. Love is a bond deemed by God in the courts of heaven, never to be broken. Friend, once welcomed into the ever open arms of God we are bound to the Father with strong cords. Cords that never will be broken.

Jesus loves us so much, He longs for all this pain and suffering to be over, He longs to take us home.

Friend I believe that time is not far away. Already the world is preparing for the final battle, all around us armies are being marshalled. The time is nigh, look to Jesus, heaven is very near.

Friend if you haven't already made your decision for Jesus please do so now. Time is running out, tomorrow may be too late. Jesus loves you and He is waiting with His arms open wide. Come unto Him today.
