

The Covenant of God

From the foundation of the earth Jesus was. At the very beginning of time, before any other being had been created God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit sat down and created their Government, they created the type of laws and government they wanted to have. They desired a rule of love and compassion, kindness and tenderness, all to promote an environment of joy, happiness, peace and pleasure.

Once their desired government had been decided God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit together wrote up a covenant. In this covenant lay the foundation of their government. Every rule, every statute, every scenario, every single pain, injustice, medical problem etc is covered in the law of God. Nobody whatever their scene or situation is past over, God has clauses and judgments, and redemption, love, compassion for every single situation. No matter the situation, everything is covered by this law of God. Nothing under this sun (or in the universe) isn't in this covenant.

Once this covenant was made it was sealed by God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit by a holy seal, a government seal. It was sealed, never to be altered or changed. A official seal stating "this is our government, this is what we stand for, this is our law, our rule. We choose to run our government by this covenant, It will not be altered and it cannot be changed". This is the law of our Beloved Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

So let's take a closer look at this law. In this law shines bright the character of the God we serve. In any ruling government on earth or in heaven the covenant they make shows their subjects what their motives are, the type of people they are and how they intend to treat the subjects under their rule.

From the beginning we can see God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit desired a rule of love and kindness but without force. They never desired a robotic kingdom. From the beginning they promoted freedom of choice. To serve them from love and devotion rather than fear or force.

So let's start with what we know. The ten commandments are a precept from this covenant. They are but a summary of the bigger picture. If we expand these commandments we can get a bigger picture of our foundational Father's government.

Let's start at the beginning:-

Matthew 22:37-40 "Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

First and foremost the government points out if you are going to serve their rules you need to love and respect them, accept their law and obey it. No man can serve two masters, if for example you choose to live in America you abide by American rules. If America says for example, you are to wear black shoes on Monday, you abide by their rule and wear black shoes on Monday. Then you move to Australia. Australia says you wear blue shoes on Monday, what do you do, well if you want to stay in Australia you abide by their rule and wear blue shoes on Monday.

This is only an example to try to understand the ruling government's laws. You abide by the government's rule you choose to obey. The banner/flag you fly states who you belong to. You may comply out of principle but to fully participate, live and love under the flag you have chosen you need to love and respect the founding Fathers. Love and respect to God is uppermost. To accept Him means we accept His government and obey His rules.

Now let's go to the commandments as they are written:-

1. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
2. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image ...
3. Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain...
4. Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

These first four commandments link into the previous statement love, respect and reverence to the one ruler, not dividing ourselves between multiple rulers. Giving our all to Jesus to love, respect and reverence.

Moving onto the remaining six commandments:-

5. Honour thy father and thy mother.
6. Thou shalt not kill.
7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
8. Thou shalt not steal.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness.
10. Thou shalt not covet.

We turn our attention to the relationship heaven's government wants us to have with our fellow man. These rules testify to the fact that Jesus' law is a reign of love. As He treats us He wants us to treat our fellow man, with respect and kindness, inflicting no pain or harm to anyone or anything.

But bad things do happen, as we are living in Satan's playground. Satan's agents are free to cause strife and destruction. Even though we are under God's banner bad things still happen. Everything is under God's watchful eye, nothing happens without His say so.

So the question remains "Why?" Why (when we have chosen to follow the government of heaven) do bad things happen and how does heaven deal with the injustices done under its government?

The first answer lies in the above statement, we are God's people living in Satan's playground and while we are living under God's government a lot of other people are not, and as we cannot segregate ourselves we have to walk among them. Our being can be a witness to Satan's people but it also draws us into danger as Satan can attack through his agents. We know from many written experiences God does draw us closer to Satan's people in a effort to win them over. Jesus always led and still leads the way strengthening and protecting, but this document is about what heaven's government has to say about a world gone rogue.

Heaven made a clause, it is one of the most important statements in the covenant. Forgiveness. God made a escape route for anyone wanting to come under His banner no matter their past.

We know forgiveness came through Jesus Christ the Son. The cross paved the way for everyone and anyone to come under the banner of God. But there are circumstances which desire a more in-depth knowledge of this covenant. Disease and disability do run rampant and I hear you say "he committed suicide there is no hope for him" or "she is mentally disabled, she says and does very bad things." God's law is enveloped in a bubble of love, God has tender mercies toward everyone and in His covenant are clauses which cover every single possible scenario/situation.

The clauses in heaven's covenant do not condemn or justify or give licence to sin under pretext of illness, heaven's covenant provides a escape from sin and slavery, it offers forgiveness, love and tender mercies. Only heaven can read the soul, heaven can say this scenario is covered.

Friend, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit made a covenant. This covenant includes you, if only one finger was raised to God in help the whole of the heavenly universe would rush to your side. Never feel you have been abandoned or you have gone too far.

Heaven is holding up the covenant sealed with the binding seal of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

Yes my friend there is a clause for you.
